

Broadcast ownership rules should not be changed to allow only a few huge corporations to buy up all the small independent TV and radio stations.